Dear Sir / Madam

Re: Pink Tie Club Golf Day – 25th June 2009

Firstly I must apologise for the unacceptable length of time that it has taken me to express my gratitude for your support of the inaugural Pink Tie Club Annual Golf Day held at the London Golf Club on Thursday 25th June 2009.

The day was a resounding success and with your help we managed to raise £25,000.00 for Headstart4Babies. www.headstart4babies.org. This figure is magnificent and far in excess of what we had hoped to raise when we started to plan the day. Both the Pink Tie Club and Philip Saich of Headstart4Babies are in awe of this figure which simply would not have been possible without your generosity and becomes even more incredible when you consider that we are currently in a recession!

We believe that we have acknowledged by means of inclusion in the golf day brochure (downloadable from our website) or via a link to your website, every company that was kind enough to pledge a prize or make a donation for the day. I'm sure that I speak on behalf of all of the Pink Tie Club main sponsors when I say that we will remember and repay your generosity when looking to do business with you in the future.

Once again, sincere thanks for your support and may I take this opportunity to wish you and your businesses continued success for the future.

Kind regards and best wishes.
